Lufthansa Cargo
General Conditions
The Netherlands
Effective 31 March 2019

Until further notice from Lufthansa Cargo the present Standard Rate Sheet 2019 (SRS) is valid from March, 31st 2019 (based on Air Waybill (AWB) issue date).

The rates listed are net/net per kilogram chargeable weight in local market currency (EUR) excluding commissions, surcharges, taxes and fees. The applicable rates and surcharges will be charged based on AWB issue date.

The rates shown are valid on LH, EW, OS, SN, XG and XQ routings and on our JV destinations on NH, UA and CX routings only, unless indicated otherwise. For destinations not listed in our SRS, TACT or industry rates for origin/destination apply.

Rates are based on weight/volume ratio 1:6 (kilogram/liter). Different rates may apply for cargo with lower- and/or higher density.

Rates displayed on the AWB must not be lower than the minimum rate level published in this SRS.

The SRS applies to General Cargo and dedicated Special Products. Rate details for further Special Products are listed under "Special Products Rates" within this document.

Lufthansa Cargo disclaims any liability for typing errors or misprints with respect to any rates published in this SRS.

Lufthansa Cargo reserves the right to change rates, additional fees and/or conditions whenever it becomes necessary. Furthermore, Lufthansa Cargo reserves the right to apply increases and/or fees at any time. In such cases, Lufthansa Cargo is entitled to terminate the SRS with immediate effect.

This SRS is to be treated as confidential and must not be passed to third parties.

The Conditions of Carriage specified on the reverse side of the AWB and the IATA Multilateral Agreement apply to any transport.

The exclusive place of jurisdiction is Frankfurt/Main, Germany. The law of the Federal Republic of Germany applies exclusively, without reference to the choice of law provisions thereof.

Embargoes or restriction to any destination have to be checked prior to booking. For shipments that cannot be booked electronically, please contact our Service Center.
